• DE - Hybrid Courses: Students spend up to 50% of their time in a classroom environment and the remainder in an asynchronous online setting. The same instructor would be involved in both settings.			• Fully Online Courses: Students spend 100% of their time in an online setting. The course would be delivered by a regular Pacific College on-the-ground instructor and there would be a formal schedule of required or optional mentoring sessions.
• Asynchronous: Defined as "taking courses online, at the time of your choosing, by yourself and self-guided".
