PACIFIC COLLEGE of HEALTH AND SCIENCE

PLEASE READ THIS IMPORTANT INFORMATION BEFORE SIGNING

Pacific College of Health and Science Clinic Policy

Pacific College operates for two vital purposes: to provide our students with valuable, varied practical clinical experience, and to provide our patients with high-quality, reasonably priced acupuncture treatments and East Asian therapies. Working together, we are creating an environment of learning and healing.

To best serve both students and patients, we ask that patients contact us at least 24 hours in advance if they need to cancel an appointment.

Beginning on Jan 1, 2024, all patients will receive two late cancellations annually without a penalty fee. Following two late cancellations, patients will be charged the full price of the treatment.

Patients who accumulate multiple cancellations and or/no-shows may be asked to schedule only same day appointments.

Repeated late cancellations may cause the need to cancel future appointments.

As best we can, we accommodate late arrivals up to 15 minutes late, however, may only be able to offer a consultation and/or shortened treatment. Arrival later than 15 minutes may constitute the need to reschedule.

Patients are requested to arrive hygienic, and not wear heavy perfume or aromas that may cause adverse reactions in others.

Blood pressure will be taken at every appointment. Patients with uncontrolled high blood pressure may be required to obtain written permission from a physician before they can receive treatment in the PCHS clinic.

Herbs may be suggested for patients as a treatment strategy. The cost of herbs is not included in the appointment fee, and herbs usually will cost between $15 - $40 per week. We cannot accept returns for herbs or products sold, including customized herbal formulas, opened patent or topical herbs.

At times, calls may be routed to voicemail. We return calls as quickly as possible, in the order they were received.

We appreciate our patients' generosity; however, our interns are unable to accept gratuities or gifts.

Thank you,

Pacific College of Health and Science Clinic

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE

THIS NOTICE CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PACIFIC COLLEGE CLINIC PRIVACY PRACTICES. THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

1. What is this notice?

To run its program, the Pacific College of Health and Science (PCHS) must collect, maintain, and use non-public personal information on patients it provides services to. We consider this information private and confidential and have policies and procedures in place to protect the information against unlawful use and disclosure. This notice describes what types of information we collect, explains when and whom we may disclose it, and provides you with additional important information as to our legal duties and privacy practices. It also describes your rights to access and control your non-public personal information (NPI).

PCHS is required to abide by the terms of this notice. However, we may modify the terms of this notice at any time, and the new notice will be effective for all NPI in our possession at the time of the change, and any created or received thereafter.

Information PCHS collects, uses and maintains on you is protected by Federal and state laws: the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and California State Public Health Law. PCHS does not disclose NPI to anyone, except with your authorization or otherwise permitted by law.

If you believe your privacy rights under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) have been violated you can submit a written complaint to the PCHS Privacy Office at the address below. You may also complain to the Secretary for Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint.

2. What is “non-public personal information” (NPI)?

Non-public personal information (NPI) is information that identifies you as an individual and relates to your participation in treatment, your physical or mental health/condition, the provision of treatment or healthcare to you or payment to the PCHS for the provision of services provided to you.

3. How does PCHS protect NPI?

At PCHS, we restrict access to NPI to members of our workforce (staff and trainees) who need to provide care or services to you or are directly engaged in important agency operations. We maintain physical and procedural safeguards to protect your information against unauthorized access and use. We also have established a Privacy Office that has overall responsibility for developing, educating our workforce about and overseeing the implementation and enforcement policies and procedures to safeguard your health information against inappropriate access, use and disclosure, consistent with applicable law.

4. How does PCHS use non-public personal information (NPI) and for what purposes?

Here are some examples of what we do with the information we collect and the reasons it might be used:

Treatment: We may use information about you to provide medical treatment and services to you. We may use and share NPI with our staff and trainees who are involved in providing care to you. For example, information obtained by our staff and trainees will be recorded and used to determine your course of treatment.

Payment: We may use and disclose NPI so that treatment and services you receive may be billed to and payment collected from you or a third party. For example, we may complete and submit your healthcare plan or insurance company a description of treatment provided to you. We also may use and disclose your NPI to obtain from other third parties that may be responsible for the costs, such as family members.

Health Care Operations: We may also use and disclose NPI to perform health care operations. This is necessary to make sure that all our patients receive quality care. For example, we may use NPI to review our treatment and services and to evaluate the performance of our staff and trainees. We may also use and share NPI with the institute's trainees and other faculty for review and learning purposes.

5. What uses and disclosures do not require authorization?

We may use and disclose NPI without your authorization for the following purposes:

Business Associates: We may contract with outside individuals and organizations that perform business services for us, such as billing, management consultants, accreditation organizations, quality assurance reviewers, accountants, or attorneys. In certain circumstances, we may need to share your information to a business associate to the amount of information that is the minimum necessary for the business associate to perform services for us. In addition, we will have a written contract in place with the business associate requiring it to protect the privacy of your information.

As Required by Law: We will disclose NPI when required to do so by federal, state, or local law.

Public Health Activities/Risks: We may disclose NPI to public health authorities that are authorized by law to collect information for the purpose of:

- Reporting child abuse or neglect
- Preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability
- Notifying a person regarding potential exposure to a communicable disease
- Notifying a person regarding the potential risk for spreading or contracting a disease or condition
- Reporting reactions to drugs or problems with products or devices
- Notifying individuals if a product or device we may be using has been recalled
- Notifying appropriate government agencies and authorities regarding the potential abuse or neglect of an adult patient (including domestic violence)
- Notifying your employer under limited circumstances related primarily to workplace injury or illness or medical surveillance

Health Care Oversight Activities: We may disclose NPI to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. Oversight activities can include investigations, inspections, audits, surveys, licensure, and disciplinary actions; civil administrative and criminal procedures or actions; or other activities necessary for the government to monitor compliance with civil rights laws and the health care system in general

Lawsuits and Disputes: We may use and disclose NPI in response to a court or administrative order if you are involved in a lawsuit or similar proceeding. We also may disclose your NPI in response to a discovery request, subpoena, or other lawful process by another party involved in the dispute, but only if we have made an effort to inform you of the request or to obtain a court order protecting the information the party has requested.

Law Enforcement: We may disclose NPI if asked to do so by a law enforcement official as part of law enforcement activities; in investigations of criminal conduct at PCHS or of victims of crime; in emergency situations to report a crime (including the location or victim(s) of the crime, or the description, identity or location of the perpetrator); or when required by law to do so.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE

Serious Threats to Health or Safety: We may use and disclose your NPI when necessary to reduce or prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or health and safety of another individual in the public. Under these circumstances, we will only make disclosures to a person or organization able to help prevent the threat.

Military: We may use and disclose NPI if you are a member of the United States or foreign military forces (including veterans) and if required by the appropriate military command authorities.

Protective Services for the President, National Security, and Intelligence Activities: We may use and disclose NPI to federal officials for intelligence and national security activities authorized by law. We also may disclose your NPI to federal officials to protect the President, other officials, or foreign heads of state, or to conduct investigations.

Worker's Compensations: We may release NPI for worker's compensation or similar programs.

6. What uses and disclosures of NPI require your authorization?

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care: We may release NPI to a friend or family member identified by you, that is helping you pay for your treatment or who assists in taking care of you.

7. What are your rights governing the information that PCHS collects, uses, and maintains on you?

The Right to Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of your NPI that we maintain and have in our possession, including treatment records and billing records. If you request copies, we will charge you a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, labor, and supplies associated with your request. To inspect and copy your NPI, you must submit your request in writing to the address below.

Under certain circumstances we may deny your request to inspect and copy your NPI. If you are denied access to this information, you have the right to have that determination reviewed. A licensed health care professional chosen by PCHS will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. PCHS promises to comply with the outcome of review.

The Right to Amend or Correct NPI: If you feel that any NPI we have about you is not correct or incomplete, you may ask us to correct or amend that information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept (three years) by us. To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing to the address below. Additionally, you must provide a reason that supports your request.

PCHS reserves the right to deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Was not created by us
- Is not part of the medical information kept by us
- Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy
- Is accurate and complete

The Right to an Accounting of Disclosures: An accounting of disclosures is a list of the disclosures we have made, if any, of your NPI.

You have the right to request an accounting of disclosures made by us. This right applies to disclosures for purposes other than those made to carry out treatment, payment and health care operations as described in this notice. It also excludes communications of NPI made to you or disclosures authorized by you.

Your request must be made in writing and state a time-period that cannot be longer than six (6) years and cannot include dates before June 9, 2020. We may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE

The Right to Receive Communications of NPI by Alternative Means or Alternative Locations: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your treatment and related issues in a particular manner or at a certain location. For example, you may ask that we contact you at work rather than at home. We will accommodate all reasonable requests made in writing.

The Right to Request Restrictions: You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the NPI we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or health care operations as described in this notice. You also have the right to request a limit on the treatment information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care (like a family member or friend).

PCHS is not required to agree to your request, however, if we do agree, we will comply with your request until we receive notice from you that you no longer want the restriction to apply.

Any request for a restriction on our use and disclosure of your NPI must be made in writing to the address below. Your request must describe in a clear and concise manner: (a) the information you wish restricted; (b) whether you are requesting to limit our use, disclosure or both; and (c) to whom you want the limits to apply.

The Right to Provide an Authorization for Other Uses and Disclosures: We will obtain your written authorization for uses and disclosures that are not identified by this notice or permitted by applicable law. Any authorization you provide to us regarding the use and disclosure of your NPI may be revoked at any time in writing to the address below. After you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose your NPI for the purposes described in the authorization, except under the following circumstance:

- We have acted in reliance upon your authorization before we received your written revocation

The Right to Obtain a Paper Copy of This Notice: You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice of privacy practices at any time.
