CRRSAA Student Funding Allocation

All students at Pacific College of Health and Science, who are in an active enrollment status during our Spring term, that have been determined eligible for the CRRSAA Grant, have been sent a Pacific College of Health and Science CRRSAA Grant attestation / acknowledgement email and link to complete electronically.

The form provides information about the CRRSAA financial grant, including eligibility requirements. Students are requested to check applicable areas in which they need financial support for expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to the Coronavirus (including education expenses, course materials, technology, food, housing, healthcare and childcare). We have also requested any updated contact information to be used to mail payments. The form requires the student’s signature and attestation that the information provided is correct, and that they understand the purpose for the emergency financial aid grant funds.

Once the completed form has been received, students are awarded a total based on the CRRSAA Award Chart Tier.

EFC	Grant
0	$917 to $1,834
1<	$987

We will continue this process quarterly until all funds have been fully disbursed.

We have sent multiple communications to our students to notify them of the availability of these CRRSAA financial aid funds. We began with sending an email from our College President & CEO on May 13, 2021 notifying them of the potential grant and including the link to the Pacific College of Health and Science Student CRRSAA Grant Acknowledgement & Attestation Form. An additional email was sent on July 7, 2021 to all active students who had not yet applied.

This process of notifying eligible students of the potential grant will be repeated during the Summer/Fall term.
